

LINNER MENU 7.0

Keep an eye out for 8.0!

Welcome!

We want you to stay as long as you want and play lots of games - unlike other restaurants you may be used to, that means we don't try to rush you out the door or have your checks waiting to go.

If you are under any kind of time pressure, please let your server know so that we can get you out quickly. Otherwise, take your time rolling dice, killing hordes of zombies, and laughing with your friends. If anything isn't great, please let your server know, or ask to speak to a manager.
